Andersen, Named an Accredited Estate Planner

William E. Andersen, J.D., L.L.M. (Estate Planning) is newly certified as an Accredited Estate Planner by the National Association of Estate Planners & Councils.

The National Association of Estate Planners & Councils (NAECP) is a national organization of professional estate planners and affiliated Estate Planning Councils focused on establishing and monitoring the highest professional and educational standards. NAEPC fosters public awareness of the quality services rendered by professionals who meet these standards. NAEPC builds a team approach involving cross-professional disciplines to better serve the public's need in estate planning.

The Accredited Estate Planner (AEP) designation is a graduate level specialization in estate planning designation. Mr. Andersen also holds a law degree (J.D.) from Vanderbilt University and a Masters of Legal Letters (L.L.M.) from the University Of Miami School Of Law.

“At The Andersen Firm, we're constantly improving our ability to serve you with added value, expanded services and innovative solutions,” Andersen said. “We encourage our clients to look to us for all their needs in estate planning, corporate and tax law, employment, international law, health care law, business law, real estate law and litigation.”
